THE FACEOFF

HOW CAN WE HELP OURSELVES AS OFFICIALS?

Define our expectations

It is all about communication

Quick but not fast

THE FACEOFF

- One of the key and most controversial parts of any game
- YOU set the tone
- Don't underestimate the game effect of a well-done faceoff protocol

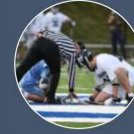

Instructor Notes

DEFINING EXPECTATIONS

PRE-GAME FACEOFF MEETING

You should meet with coaches and faceoff players prior to each game

At a minimum, spend a few minutes at the first faceoff with the players.

Discussion
Questions

DEFINING EXPECTATIONS

- This is your chance to set the tone BEFORE the game starts
- Relationships with faceoff players should be a PARTNERSHIP

CLASS DISCUSSION

- As a class review what you would talk about with the coaches and face-off players prior to the game in a meeting, or at minimum prior to the game face-off

Instructor Notes

PRE-GAME FACEOFF MEETING PROCEDURE

PRE-GAME FACEOFF MEETING PROCEDURE

- Is this necessary?

- What about late in the season. Does it still matter?

DISCUSSION ITEMS FOR FACEOFF PLAYERS

- The motorcycle grip is no longer allowed
- Players must play the ball
- Hands off the plastic, no tape on the head of the stick
- Contrasting color on the shaft of the stick
- If there is a question regarding the faceoff, ask at the next faceoff. Get out there ASAP!

From these points, select the items you feel need to be addressed for your game

Instructor Notes

NO PREGAME MEETING

YOUTH & TOURNAMENT GAMES

Let's be honest, sometimes we can't have the pregame conference due to time. With youth and tournament games using running time, starting on the hour and ALWAYS behind schedule, we can't always follow all the steps...so what should we do?

- At the first faceoff, have a quick conversation defining your expectations on how you want to conduct the faceoff.
- What do you want from the players?
- What are the main points you want to address for the faceoff to be conducted smoothly.

NO PREGAME MEETING

- Some situations just don't allow for a formal meeting
- You should still establish that protocol to minimize violations
- Have a short version
- Introduce yourself
- Consider shaking hands and building consensus for a clean faceoff game

Instructor Notes

CONDUCTING THE FACEOFF

CONSISTENCY IS KEY

ACTIVITY ALERT

7

CONDUCT THE FACEOFF

- Place the ball at the point of the faceoff first.
- Down
- May move players if needed
- Say “Set”
- Back away and whistle

It is legal to clamp the ball but must be moved, raked or directed immediately, within one step.

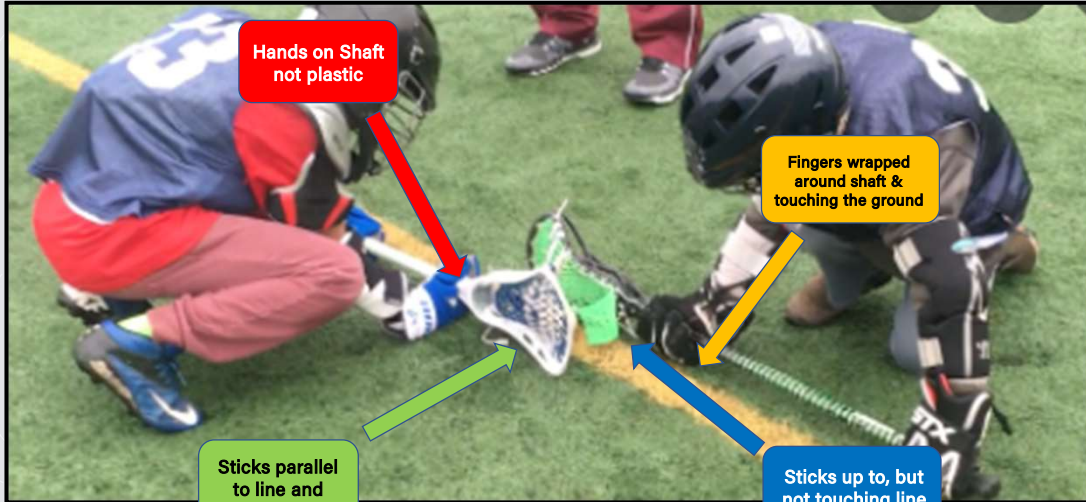

ACTIVITY: have participants work in teams and set up face offs, have each team self-assess their teammates

Instructor Notes

LEGAL FACEOFFS

QUICK VISUAL CHECKS

8

LEGAL FACEOFFS – VISUAL CHECK

- Hands around shaft, not touching the plastic
- All fingers touching the ground
- Hands off the head of the stick
- Stick parallel to the centerline
- Heads of the stick vertical
- No tape on head of stick
- Sticks up to but not touching the line

Note: The ball is placed down first which indicates the faceoff position.

Note: Motorcycle grip is no longer allowed. The hand closer to the head of the stick must be in a palm up position. Contrasting color on the shaft of the stick (via tape or a shaft color. The head and a bare shaft cannot be the same color)

Instructor Notes

WING PLAYERS

DON'T FORGET ABOUT THEM

- Wing players can only check the faceoff players stick until the faceoff has ended
- If they check the faceoff players battling for the ball
 - Unnecessary Roughness flag thrown
 - Penalty at least 2 minutes full time

9

WING PLAYERS

- Don't sleep on these players
- Lots of cheap shots can happen here
- Sometimes a challenge to watch, especially 2-man
- Preventative officiating can solve problems

DISCUSSION QUESTION

- When does the faceoff end?

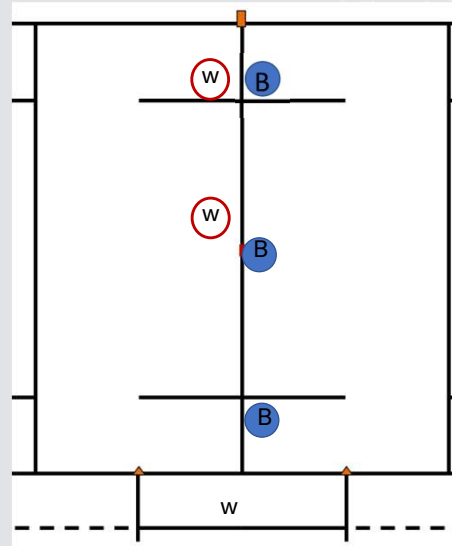

Instructor Notes

PLAYERS IN PENALTY AREA DURING A FACEOFF

KNOW THE PROTOCOLS FOR RELEASE

- The wing must be left open
- If penalty time has expired and possession has been signaled on the faceoff, player in the box is released.
- If penalty time has expired but no possession has been signaled, the player must remain in the box until the official's signal possession

10

PLAYERS IN PENALTY AREA DURING A FACEOFF

- Make sure EVERYONE know the situation before the faceoff
 - Partners
 - Table staff
 - Coaches

CLASS DISCUSSION

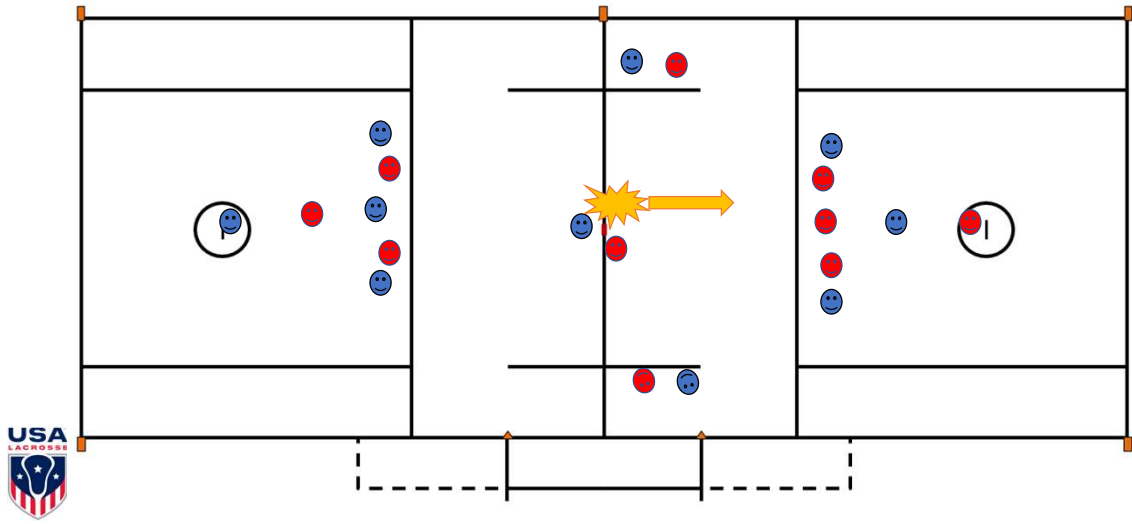

- If the player comes out before possession, what violation is called?
 - How is it adjudicated?
- Does the near wing have to be left open for release?

Instructor Notes

LOOSE BALL, TECHNICAL FOUL DURING A FACEOFF

WHAT DO WE DO WITH THE PLAYERS BEHIND THE RESTRAINING LINES?

LOOSE BALL TECHNICAL FOUL DURING A FACEOFF

- Play will be restarted with the players who were behind the restraining line remaining behind lines.
- Do you hold up play to put them back?
- Do the offensive players have to wait to come out of the box until the whistle?

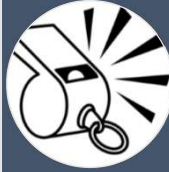

Instructor Notes

WHEN DO WE SIMPLY START OVER?

WE DON'T ALWAYS GET A CLEAN FACEOFF

Ball goes out of bounds in midfield and officials don't know who last touched the ball

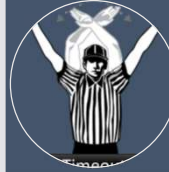

An inadvertent whistle before the ball crosses the restraining line

An injury occurs in the midfield area

Simultaneous fouls of equal duration occur while the ball is loose

Official calls timeout before a team gains possession

Ball gets stuck in a uniform or equipment other than a crosse

WHEN DO WE SIMPLY START OVER?

- Sometimes, too many things happen and we need to start over
- The goal is to make it fair
- Do we put time back on the clock? (No)
- Do we allow subs?

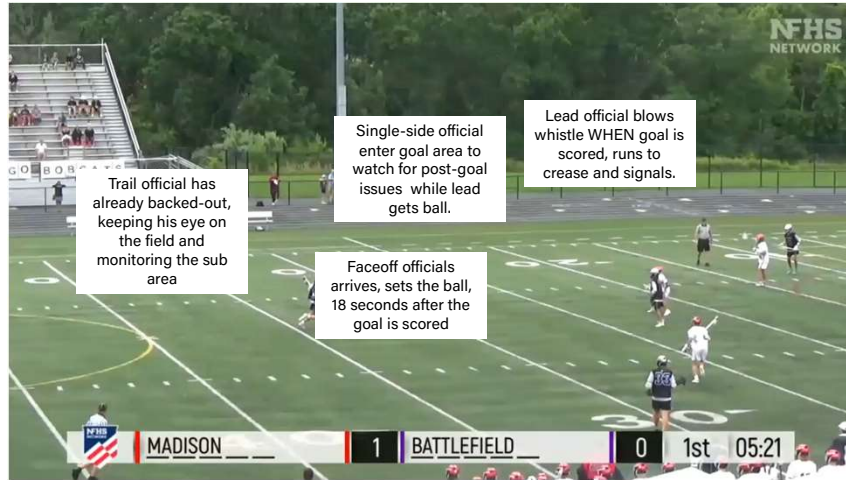

Instructor Notes

FACEOFF AFTER GOALS

WHAT IT LOOKS LIKE WHEN DONE CORRECTLY

- When a goal is scored and the ball has been retrieved, HUSTLE to the faceoff spot
- Write down the scores and such prior to the faceoff near midfield

Class Discussion Questions

FACEOFF AFTER GOALS

- Video example of a faceoff after a goal
- The faceoff was conducted within 30s of the gal being scored

CLASS DISCUSSION

- What other good habit did you notice from this crew?
- Anything you would do differently?
